FORCED TO VACATE

Entire Building to be Torn Down and Replaced by Skyscraper

L. R. Crane, proprietor of THE HUB, Rock Island's well known reliable clothing store, is forced to vacate the store he has occupied for the past seven years to make room for building operations. He cannot find a suitable location to move to, so he is compelled to sacrifice his magnificent stock and retire from business.

$60,000 WORTH of HIGHEST GRADE and BEST QUALITY CLOTHING AND FURNISHINGS

WILL BE THROWN UPON THE MERCY OF THE PUBLIC FOR WHATEVER IT WILL BRING.

This necessity of disposing of this entire stock coming so suddenly when the shelves and counters are literally stacked high with new merchandise bought for this fall and winter's business, will entail a tremendous loss upon Mr. Crane. However, his loss will be the public's gain. Every article or garment in the entire store will be sold regardless of cost or profit. There will be but one object in view—to dispose of the entire stock within the shortest possible time.

Sale Starts Wednesday, Oct. 2

Promptly at 9 a. m. and Lasts Just 11 days, Ending, Sat., Oct. 12

It seems a herculean task to sell a stock of this magnitude within the short time specified, but the prices will be so absurdly low on strictly highest quality merchandise that the public will buy for future as well as present needs.

Store is Now Closed and Will Remain Closed Until Wednesday 9 a. m., when the Big Sale Starts

THIS EXTRACT FROM THE ARGUS SPEAKS FOR ITSELF

8-STORY BUILDING IS NOW TALKED OF FOR ROCK ISLAND

Max Ochs Has Plans for a Little Skyscraper in Business Districts.

MODERN IN ALL RESPECTS

Contemplates Putting Up a Dandy at Eighteenth Street and Second Avenue.

Max Ochs of Davenport, who owns one of the most valuable business corners in the city of Rock Island, the northeast corner of Eighteenth street and Second avenue, is seriously considering the erection on the site of the most metropolitan mercantile building in the three cities, and if his present plans materialize operations will commence this fall. The existing leaseholds expire early in the autumn and Mr. Ochs is considering no renewals that do not contemplate quarters in his new building.

The structure which Mr. Ochs has in mind will be entirely modern and entirely fireproof, built of structural brick and cement, with ground space of 40x70 feet.

TO BE EIGHT STORIES HIGH. It will be eight stories in height, with basement and sub-basement. It will be provided with two stories fronting on Second avenue, while the upper floors will be designed exclusively for office suits. Elevators will be placed in an entrance on Eighteenth street and the buildings will be equipped with every modern convenience, cement floors, marble and mahogany finishings, mail chutes from all floors, and hot and cold water throughout the building. The approximate cost is $100,000.

NO TROUBLE ABOUT TENANTS. Mr. Ochs already has assurance of 60 per cent of the tenants the building will accommodate and is satisfied he will experience no difficulty in disposing of every foot of space before he begins operations.

BISHOP DUNNE TO CONFIRM A CLASS

Owing to the length of the services, but three masses will be celebrated at St. Joseph's church. At first mass at 7:30 communion will be administered to the candidates for confirmation. Second mass will be at 9 and at 10:30 confirmation will be administered. The hours of mass at St. Joseph's will be half an hour later after next Sunday, the hours being 7:30, 8:30, 9:30 and 10:30.

YOUNG PEOPLE ARRANGE FOR A LECTURE COURSE

At the last business meeting of the Broadway Young People's association the society completed plans for the lecture course that it will give this winter. The course is one of unusual merit, and the society feels that it is offering the people of the church and their friends a great opportunity to hear something worth while, as well as entertaining.

The first attraction is the Lyric Glee club, which appears Oct. 25. This is one of the four best known male quartets in the United States. They were sent to Panama twice at the expense of the United States government to give a concert there. Omar Covert, the first tenor, sings Paul Lawrence Dunbar's "Mammy's Little Lamb" with the accompaniment of the other three singers, as a trade mark song, and it has made them very popular.

On the 26th of November Charles Howard Plattenburg will lecture on "Worms Beneath the Bark." There are thousands of lecturers on the platform who really cannot lecture, but Mr. Plattenburg is not of that class. He has a message, and can give it brilliantly and in a way that grips you hard.

The Metropolitan Ladies' orchestra is a little unusual. They have played together for a long time until it is with the feeling of one woman. Miss Cox, the first violin, is an artist. Her music is not heavy, but light and graceful, so that one is relaxed and refreshed by the hearing. Their date is the 16th of January.

Wirt Luther lectures Feb. 19 on "The Art of Seeing Things." Mr. Luther is very much like that very popular lecturer, Mr. Conwell, and his lecture like Conwell's "Acres of Diamonds."

The last attraction comes on the 11th of March, when the Maude Stevens Concert company give their concert. One can judge of their popularity when it is known that last year they gave a concert every night during October, November, December and January, including New Year's and Thanksgiving. The only holiday they had was on Christmas.

Had it in my neck so I could not turn my head, and all through my body. I tried three doctors and many remedies without any relief whatever until I procured Dr. Deitchon's Relief for Rheumatism. In a few hours the pain was relieved and in three days the rheumatism was completely cured and I was at work." Girlish, Wrinkle-Free Skin Easy to Have

(From Pictorial Magazine.) Since its remarkable astringent and tonic properties became known, clever women all over the world have been using the saxolite face bath to "tone up" their faces, remove wrinkles and draw flabby cheeks and neck back to normal. After using the solution, the face skin tightens evenly, gradually, like cold cream, washing it off morning and night. The formula is: Powdered saxolite, one ounce, dissolved in witch hazel, one-half pint.

Another wonderful facial beautifier and rejuvenator that has become quite a rage in the United States, and in Europe, is mercerized wax. Druggists report a great demand. The wax literally absorbs a sallow, blotchy or withered complexion, giving the fresh, vigorous, healthy-hued young skin underneath a chance to "breathe" and to show itself. Apply the wax at night, like cold cream, washing it off morning and night. The formula is: Mercerized wax, one ounce, dissolved in witch hazel, one-half pint.
